

Emmett J. Doerr Memorial Distinguished Scout Scholarship

Applications are now being accepted for the 2017 Emmett J. Doerr Memorial Distinguished Scout Scholarship. The National Catholic Committee on Scouting (NCCS) established the Emmett J. Doerr Memorial Distinguished Scout Scholarship to be awarded to six outstanding high school Catholic seniors who are Scout in BSA program and continuing their education in college.

The scholarship was established to honor Mr. Emmett J. Doerr, who was a dedicated Catholic Scouter and very active member of the NCCS. Mr. Doerr received the Silver Antelope, Silver Beaver, and Saint George awards for his service to the Boy Scouts of America. The Doerr family and the NCCS are continuing his legacy by offering $2,000 scholarships in his name to six distinguished Catholic Scouts.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Must be a practicing Catholic
- Be a full-time high school senior
- Be a registered young man or woman actively involved in a Scout Troop, Varsity Scout Troop, Venturing Crew or Sea Scout Ship.
- Must have earned the Ad Altare Dei or Pope Pius XII Religious Award
- Provided service to your church, community school and Scouts
